

WEEK OF PRAYER

Pray with Mennonite Brethren across Canada

Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus (Acts 4:29 – 30).

As Canadian Mennonite Brethren, our desire is to see Canada transformed by the good news of Jesus Christ one life at a time. At the beginning of the new year, I invite us all to recommit ourselves to Jesus, His mission in the world and His calling on us as a church.

We believe prayer is instrumental in the life of the church – for clarity, power and unity. Our staff prepared this seven-day guide as a resource for churches and individuals to embark on a journey across Canada through prayer.

God's Spirit is at work in our country. The Lord invites us, His servants, to join His work – to speak and act with boldness, healing and power for the sake of Canadians from coast to coast to coast.

This year's prayer guide highlights the seven regions where MBs are active, providing a snapshot of the needs and opportunities in each province. As you read the brief history of each region, you'll see how an impetus toward mission – a desire for all people to be reconciled with God through Jesus – was present at the very beginning of our church family.

My prayer is that our passion for mission would continue to grow through church multiplication initiatives such as community service and outreach, the initiation of new churches and the creative ministry of established churches. Let's pray for God to move in us and through us, anticipating the amazing things Jesus will do across Canada in 2014!

Willy Reimer, Executive Director

CANADIAN CONFERENCE of Mennonite Brethren Churches

Day One: British Columbia

British Columbia has the largest population of religiously unaffiliated people in the country, with 44 percent of the province not claiming any type of religious label.

Opportunities abound for B.C.'s MB churches. Thousands of children hear the good news of Jesus at five camps annually. Columbia Bible College and MB Biblical Seminary train leaders for ministry. And C2C Network is planting churches in various urban centres.

History of MB churches in B.C.

- 1928: MB families from the Prairie provinces come to the Fraser Valley.
- 1931: Three congregations are organized.
- 1940: The B.C. MB Conference is officially incorporated.
- 1970s: The region sees growth in church planting among a variety of ethnic groups.

- A home for young female domestics in Vancouver.
- A mission to children is started by the Western Children's Mission.

Day Two: Alberta

Alberta's population growth is the fastest in Canada, making it a vibrant and entrepreneur-friendly place to live. Despite the region's resource and monetary wealth, thousands live in spiritual poverty.

Responding to the massive flood that hit Alberta in June 2013, local churches formed closer partnerships, as people graciously opened their hearts, homes and wallets. The Alberta conference also values partnership, blending many of its services and budget with the Canadian conference.

History of MB churches in Alberta

- 1920s: The Canadian Mennonite Board of Colonization directs MB families to Canadian Pacific Railway land. The first congregations are formed in Coaldale, Gem, Vauxhall and Rosemary.

- Pray that pastoral openings will be filled.

Day Three: Saskatchewan

Saskatchewan's farming reputation has been transformed into a resource extraction leader in the oil, gas and mining sectors.

The boom brings unprecedented population growth to the province. Saskatchewan is now a destination for skilled workers from China, India, Pakistan and the Philippines. Saskatchewan's churches are reaching out to their new neighbours with initiatives like Forest Grove's multi-campus expansion plans and Lanigan's growing circle of missional communities.

History of MB churches in Saskatchewan

- 1898: MB families arrive from the U.S. and Manitoba.
- 1899: North Saskatchewan District (Rosthern area) is established.
- 1909: South Saskatchewan District (Herbert area) is established.

- Reflect on the gifts and talents God has given you. Thank Him that you're "fearfully and wonderfully made."

- Pray for Ralph Gliege as he retires from the position of director of church ministries and for Dwayne Barkman, director of Harvest Saskatchewan, as he moves toward retirement. Pray that transitions to new directors will be smooth.

- Praise God for the strong missional mindset in Saskatchewan churches.

Day Four: Manitoba

Winnipeg hosted Canada's first Truth and Reconciliation Commission gathering in 2010, where people heard stories of Canada's residential school system.

Many Manitoba churches, leaders and ministries have a heart for Aboriginal Peoples, in Winnipeg's inner city and neighbouring reserves.

Manitoba's churches are also involved in their communities through grassroots ministries such as a community garden at Crossroads MB Church and literacy evening at One88.

History of MB churches in Manitoba

- 1888: The first MB congregation in Canada organizes at Burwalde (near Winkler), resulting from the visit of an MB evangelist from the U.S. in 1886.
- 1923–1930: Migration of Mennonites from Russia results in the founding of many more congregations.
- 1929: The Mennonite Brethren Church of Manitoba is formally organized.

Day Five: Ontario

Half of all new Canadian immigrants settle in Ontario, creating a truly multicultural population. With this comes a diverse religious landscape - some 11 percent of all Canadians belong to religions other than Christianity.

Many of our Ontario MB churches work with Canada's immigrant population. Some of them "Move In" to the neighbourhood, experiencing a vast array of cultural traditions, foods and languages.

History of MB churches in Ontario

- 1924: Mennonites from Russia settle in southern Ontario, mainly Waterloo County area. Language and cultural differences and their growing numbers lead the Russian Mennonites to worship separately from their Swiss Mennonite hosts.
- 1932: The Ontario MB Conference is founded in New Hamburg.

Early ministries:

- Children's Bible schools expanded to many parts of southern Ontario by 1944.
- Camping ministries resulted in the purchase of a new camp property in 1980.

Ed Willms, Executive Director

Day Six: Quebec

Attendance at religious services in Quebec has decreased dramatically over the past decades. “Like a brush soaked with a powerful paint remover, secularism has liquefied and scrubbed away religion from people’s lives,” wrote Éric Wingender, late professor of theology at ETEM.

Resources and energy in the Quebec conference are stretched but spirits are strong. Community outreach occurs through church planting, camping ministry, a bimonthly magazine and Bible college training.

History of MB churches in Quebec

- 1960s: After mission work in Congo is interrupted by conflict, French-speaking families settle in Quebec to begin church planting.
- 1964: The first congregation is organized in Saint-Jerome.
- 1983: The Quebec MB Conference (AEFMQ) is founded.

Early ministries:

- Evangelistic work in the 1960s, primarily in the greater Montreal area, focused on literature distribution and Bible study groups.
- A Bible institute at Saint-Rose was formed in 1976 to train leaders for Quebec churches.

Gilles Dextraze, Executive Director
Quebec MB Conference (AEFMQ)

Day Seven: Atlantic Canada

With several universities in the region, MB churches have many opportunities to reach out to young people with Jesus' love.

Research shows that 60 percent of churchgoing teens become spiritually disengaged after high school. Our five churches in Atlantic Canada are finding creative ways to engage with these young people. They're also serving young families, people who are homeless and many others.

Churches in Atlantic Canada receive care and support from the Canadian Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches.

History of MB churches in Atlantic Canada

- 1954: Mennonites work as teachers, entrepreneurs, blueberry farmers and in other professions.
- 1960s: A Christian Service Unit is formed in Nova Scotia. CS workers serve in their professional areas and help with church plants.
- 1967: Mount Edward Bible Fellowship is formed.
- 1980s: Dedicated workers are sent to plant churches.

Reflection (Acts 4:29–30)

- Praise the Lord for His holiness, goodness and mighty power.

Pray with the five MB churches in Atlantic Canada.

- Pray that Christians would embrace their commission to make and mature disciples in Atlantic Canada.
- Pray that church and denominational leaders will experience deeper unity in Christ for the sake of the gospel.
- Pray that followers of Jesus will know the depth of God's love, which overflows in the way we join Jesus in loving our neighbours as ourselves.
